

Esra EZİCİ

Esra Ezici, a graduate of Hacettepe University, has been working as a teacher of English and the Head of the English Department in the Middle East Technical University Development and Foundations Schools in Mersin since 2000. She has attended many ELT seminars and conferences in Turkey. She has also attended a course on “Teaching Young Learners” in Norwich Institute for Language Education in England. She has given seminars on teaching English through videos and educational web tools.

Sara Olds TATLIER

Sara Olds Tatlier has been teaching English for seven years to young learners in Turkey. She has a Master in Public and International Affairs and a CELTA certification. This is her second year at the Middle East Technical University Development and Foundations Schools in Mersin. She is from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, U.S.A.

Sunum Özeti

MANY HANDS MAKE LIGHT WORK

Group work can be an extremely functional tool in the classroom as you can involve any of the skills that a 21st century learner needs, in one particular task. The overall aim of this seminar is to encourage teachers of English to use group work activities in their lessons. The participants will be introduced to some useful groupwork activities as well as some practical ideas to overcome the challenges of groupwork in their classes.